

My primary responsibilities as a speaker representing the Natural Stone Institute are prioritized as follows:

- Present the CEU courses and their educational value to my audience.
- Promote natural dimension stone as the leading materials choice for residential and commercial applications.
- Publicize the Natural Stone Institute as the authoritative source for information on standards of natural stone workmanship and practice.
- Deliver courses without endorsement, bias, marketing, or sales orientation.

I understand that it is also my responsibility to:

- Learn the content of each presentation utilized by my organization by studying the available training materials and other relevant sources.
- Read, understand, and disseminate all information regarding our participation with members of my organization involved with the Natural Stone Institute CEU program.
- Ensure the quality of any educational programs that are being reported for my firm under this program.
- Conduct our operations and programs in an ethical manner that respects the rights and worth of the professionals we serve.
- Provide full and accurate disclosure of information about our programs promotional materials. This includes keeping up to date with any changes to class codes, organization approval status, current logos, and other credit information.
- Ensure company logos, product names, and branding are limited to the first and last slides only. Recognize that any information and handouts distributed are done with the intent to reinforce the learning objectives.
- Defer product and proprietary specific questions for discussion either before or after the course has concluded.

I understand that it is NOT my responsibility, nor privilege, to distribute the program resources beyond my own company.

My firm is a member of Natural Stone Institute in good standing abiding by the Code of Ethics.

I understand that Natural Stone Institute programs are subject to quality audit, and that we may be removed from the system (forfeiting paid fees, credits presented by other members, and required to return all electronic versions of education programs) if we are non-compliant.
